

Inmigración

- Did you immigrate to the US?
- If yes, when and from where?
- If no, what are your experiences with immigration?

La vida en EEUU

- What are some of things you found different from your culture and culture here in Minnesota/US?
- What cultural pieces were difficult to understand or adjust to?
- Do you feel as though you are somewhere in the middle of both of your cultures? Explain.
- What challenges come with raising a family in a new culture and at the same time trying to preserve an appreciation of the culture of their heritage?
- When did you feel the most or least accepted here in the US?
- What cultural traditions here in the US would you like to know more about?

Sentido de comunidad

- What brought you to Ascension? How did you find out about this parish?
- Do you interact with Ascension families from other cultural backgrounds? If so, how? And what were your thoughts of that experience/those experiences?
- Is it important that Ascension have a feeling of community? Why?
- Should the community be multi-cultural?
- What are the challenges and benefits of a multi-cultural community?
- What cultural traditions of yours would you like to share with people of other cultures?

- Do you enjoy the bi-lingual celebrations at Ascension (Guadalupe, Stations of the Cross)? Why or why not?
- Do you think we should offer more bi-lingual services?
- Have you ever attended an Ascension service or function that was not in your primary language? What made you attend?
- What did you think?
- Do you know families at Ascension that do not speak the same primary language as you?
- If yes, How did you meet? How do you communicate?
- If no, do you have interest in getting to know some families that do not speak the same primary language as you?
- Do you have interest in multi-cultural activities?
- What types of activities would be interesting to you?
- Would you participate? How frequently should they be held?
- What day and time would work best for your schedule?
- What does community mean to you?